

SEDAR 83 South Atlantic Vermilion Snapper

SEDAR 83 was scheduled to be an Operational Assessment that addressed the stock of South Atlantic Vermilion Snapper. Due to staffing issues within the analytical agency the operational assessment was converted to an interim assessment to be conducted by the Southeast Fishery Science Center.

No research recommendations were produced.